Claudio Monteverdi Vespers (1610)

Saturday 23 June 7.00pm

City of Birmingham Choir

Conductor Adrian Lucas

With the Period instrument ensembles:

QuintEssential Sackbut and Cornet Ensemble

Musical & Amicable Society

Composed in 1610 and still thrilling audiences over 400 years later, the Monteverdi vespers is an iconic piece of work and one of the great pillars of the Baroque repertoire in the same way as Handel's Messiah or Bach's B minor Mass. Enjoy this rare opportunity to hear this incredible and remarkable piece of music performed by the City of Birmingham Choir together with soloists and period instrument ensembles in the magnificent surroundings of Gloucester Cathedral.

Tickets prices as follows: Front Nave £25, Front Nave £21, Rear Nave £18, Sides aisles £10

Booking details: Tickets available from the Cathedral Shop or 01452 768928 or online through our Box Office

Please note there will be no interval in this performance.

Gloucester Music Festival Concert – Gaudeamus

Tuesday 26 June 7.30pm

New Gloucester vocal group Gaudeamus present an evening of music associated with Gloucester's history, in the beautiful surroundings of Gloucester Cathedral Lady Chapel. Newly commissioned choral pieces written for the Æthelflæd 1100 commemorations in June will be performed, together with pieces written in honour of King Richard III, and some historical works from the medieval and Tudor periods.

This concert is part of the 2018 Gloucester Music Festival, which runs from 24-30 June. As will all the other events in the Festival, this concert is free with a retiring collection.

In Manus Tuas - The Glevum Consort

Saturday 2 June 7.30pm

Glevum Consort are a professional Chamber Choir based in Gloucester.

The group was originally founded and directed by James Atherton and has recently begun life under new director Edward Rimmer. The Consort are a versatile group, unique in the West Country. We specialise in performing early music, but are able to perform a diverse range of music for a variety of settings and occasions.

"In Manus Tuas" - Music by the great 16th Century English composers Sheppard, Tye and Taverner. The programme will centre around Tye's majestic "Missa Euge Bone". This will be the first choral concert in the newly restored Lady Chapel of Gloucester Cathedral, and will be the perfect opportunity to experience beautiful music in a wonderful space and acoustic.

Tickets £15 - £12 for concessions and under 16 free, available from the Cathedral Gift Shop, 01452 768928

*Hail the true body, born of the Virgin Mary:
You who truly suffered and were sacrificed
the cross
for the sake of humankind.
From whose pierced flank
flowed water and blood:
Be a foretaste for us
in the trial of death.
O sweet, O gentle,
O Jesu, son of Mary.*

Cheltenham Festivals Concert
Berlioz Grande Messe des morts, Op. 5 90'
Saturday 14 July 7.30pm

Nick Pritchard tenor
British Sinfonietta
South Cotswold Big Sing Group
Saint Cecilia Singers
Adrian Partington conductor

The enormous forces of Berlioz's Grande messe des morts – including extended orchestra, four off-stage brass ensembles, ten pairs of timpani and a massed choir – make hearing it a rare and unforgettable experience. Add the exceptional acoustic of Gloucester Cathedral and one of the country's finest choral directors, Adrian Partington, and it becomes unmissable. Berlioz's thrilling masterpiece alternates from thundering drama to hushed intimacy.

Support the Glory of Music

Choral music has been an integral part of Cathedral life for almost 500 years and breathes life into our wonderful building and brings joy to us all.

In Gloucester we are rightly proud of our musicians and the quality of our choirs.

If you wish to keep our choral tradition alive, please support our choirs.

The Youth Choir, Junior Choir, boy and girl choristers all depend on your support.

Help Cathedral music to thrive by making a donation or leaving a gift in your will or by becoming a Music Patron for as little as £10 a month.

If you would like more information about supporting music at Gloucester Cathedral, please contact our Development Manager, Theo Platt:

Supporting the Cathedral

The Friends of Gloucester Cathedral comprises many different people, all of whom have an abiding concern for the future wellbeing of Gloucester Cathedral, its community and its spiritual influence. Being members of the Friends enables people to support the Cathedral in many ways and at the same time to be part of a social group which enjoys many interesting events.

Would you like to be a part of this interesting and important work?

Please pick up a leaflet in the Cathedral, or if you would like more information please contact the Friends' Secretary or visit the website.
