Elgar - The Dream of Gerontius Gloucester Choral Society - Concert

Saturday 13 October 7.00pm

Enjoy Elgar’s masterpiece The Dream of Gerontius, considered by many to be his finest choral work, in the atmospheric setting of Gloucester Cathedral. A setting of the poem by John Henry Newman, the work tells the story in beautiful poetry and music of a soul’s journey through death, and is exquisitely moving.

Elgar himself wrote this quotation at the end of his original manuscript: This is the best of me; for the rest, I ate, and drank, and slept, loved and hated, like another: my life was as the vapour and is not; but this I saw and knew; this, if anything of mine, is worth your memory.

Gloucester Choral Society performs this wonderful work under the baton of renowned choral director Adrian Partington in the beautiful location of Gloucester Cathedral.

Junior Voices Project Concert

Wednesday 28 November at 6pm

Gloucester Cathedral Junior Voices Project

Three Gloucestershire schools per term benefit from the Cathedral's Junior Voices Project. Four visits to each of the three selected schools are arranged to help develop singing and encourage pupils and teachers to enjoy the benefits of group music-making. The project culminates at the end of each term when the school choirs perform a concert in the Cathedral to an audience of proud families, relations, school staff and friends.

We are very grateful to the generous donors who make this project such a success and look forward to continuing this valuable work in Gloucestershire schools.

Everyone is welcome. Admission to the concert is free with a retiring collection for the Music Department's outreach work.

MUSIC PATRONS

Support the Glory of Music

Choral music has been an integral part of Cathedral life for almost 500 years and breathes life into our wonderful building and brings joy to us all.

In Gloucester we are rightly proud of our musicians and the quality of our choirs.

If you wish to keep our choral tradition alive, please support our choirs.

The Youth Choir, Junior Choir, boy and girl choristers all depend on your support.

Help Cathedral music to thrive by making a donation or leaving a gift in your will or by becoming a Music Patron for as little as £10 a month.

If you would like more information about supporting music at Gloucester Cathedral, please contact our Development Manager, Theo Platt:
